

GEORGIA GRADE 5 WRITING ASSESSMENT

WRITING TOPICS

FORM 1

Your school is being featured on a local TV talk show. You have been invited to appear on the show and talk about something interesting that happened at school. Write about what you will say on the TV program.

Copyright © 2002 Georgia Department of Education

FORM 4

Think of funny things that have happened to you. Which one would make your friends laugh? Write the story you would tell so that your friends will know what happened and why it was so funny.

Copyright © 2002 Georgia Department of Education

FORM 5

What do you remember about being in the first grade? Think about your first grade memories. Choose one and write about it.

Copyright © 2002 Georgia Department of Education

FORM 6

All kinds of things happen at school. Choose one of your experiences and write about it.

Copyright © 2002 Georgia Department of Education

FORM 8

Everyone depends on other people sometimes. Tell about a time you helped someone. What did you do for the person and how did it help?

Copyright © 2002 Georgia Department of Education

FORM 12

Your class has planted a garden at your school. One morning you notice that all the plants have mysteriously disappeared. Write a story telling what happened to the plants.

Copyright © 2002 Georgia Department of Education

FORM 13

You have a tee shirt with a picture of an elephant on the front. One sunny afternoon while you are wearing the shirt, the elephant mysteriously leaps off your shirt and starts running down the street. Write a story about what happens.

Copyright © 2002 Georgia Department of Education

FORM 14

While you were getting dressed for school one morning, a radio announcer reported that a dinosaur was seen in your town. Suddenly you heard a thundering sound outside your home. You knew it must be the dinosaur. You decided to follow it to find out what would happen. Write a story about your adventures with the dinosaur.

Copyright © 2002 Georgia Department of Education

FORM 15

You wake up one morning and find your toy robot staring you in the face. The robot says, "Wake up sleepyhead. Today we are going to have an adventure." Write about what happens.

Copyright © 2002 Georgia Department of Education

FORM 16

There's a large lumpy sack on the teacher's desk that is making strange noises. The teacher leaves the room and the sack starts to move. Write a story about what happens.

Copyright © 2002 Georgia Department of Education

FORM 18

When you get home from school, there is a surprise waiting for you. It is in a box as big as your teacher's desk and there are strange noises coming from the box. Write a story about what happens when you open the box.

Copyright © 2002 Georgia Department of Education

FORM 19

A circus animal shows up at your school. You and your friends invite it to join your class. Write a story about what happens during the animal's first day at school.

Copyright © 2002 Georgia Department of Education

FORM 20

Neighbors ask you to babysit while they go to the grocery store. When you arrive at their home, a monkey opens the door. You discover that you are going to babysit the monkey! Write about what happens.

Copyright © 2002 Georgia Department of Education

FORM 21

One day you and a friend go to a creek. You put a small boat in the water. It floats downstream and out of sight. Write a story about the travels of the boat.

Copyright © 2002 Georgia Department of Education

FORM 22

You are the only person in the world who can understand the language of whales. You have been asked to be on a TV show to tell the world what the whales told you. Write a story about what the whales said to you.

Copyright © 2002 Georgia Department of Education