	:	WITH CASE NO. 1981-31)
vs.	:

BOARD OF EDUCATION,	:
	:	HEARING OFFICER
Appellee.	:

Both of these appeals were taken from decisions by the Paulding County Board of Education (hereinafter "Local Board") to renew the contract of two employees. Jean Silbaugh (hereinafter "Appellant"), as Superintendent of the Paulding County School System, had recommended to the Local Board that the contracts of the two employees not be renewed. The Hearing Officer recommends that the appeals be dismissed.

Ga. Code Ann. §32-910 provides that appeals can be taken from decisions of local boards of education by "any party aggrieved" by the decision. Neither the appeal in Case No. 1981-24, nor the appeal in Case No. 1981-31, shows that Appellant has been aggrieved by the Local Board's decision. In the absence of an aggrieved party, the State Board of Education is without jurisdiction to decide the appeal.
